Frankee Razor, born in Pennsylvania and raised in Ohio and New Jersey, is a former American Idol finalist who stole the hearts of millions with his beautiful voice and unique style. He starred in Broadway's "Another Chance" and has performed internationally. A passionate singer/songwriter, Frankee writes from the heart, creating eclectic, genre-bending music inspired by soul, reggae, dance, and pop. Frankee's biggest musical influences are Prince, Bob Marley, and Jimi Hendrix. Frankee's dynamic voice and ferocious pen can only be rivaled by his passionate and show stopping stage performances. His biggest goals as an artist involve making Grammy winning and Billboard topping music while touring the world to spread love, positivity and light. Frankee's current project reflects the deeply personal journey he took to become his most authentic self.
